The Mobile Evening Tribune, of the 16th, gives a startling account of the killing of a large panther in the streets of Mobile, on the morning of that day. He was discovered in the yard of a Mr. C Bright, on Conti street, and was shot and severely wounded by that gentleman after which the animal was chased extensively through the streets, and finally killed in LeBaron's lane. The ani mal measures, from the tip of the tail to the head, six feet ten inches. His counted for.

MASONIC NOTICE.

At a regular communication of Silas Brown Lodge, No. 65, held in their Hall in the city of Jackson on the 20th inst.,

JACOB L. MEYERS, was expelled from the same for gross unma sonic conduct. Said Meyers is about --years of age, is a native of France-has been in this country about two years-speaks the English very imperfectly—is a little over five feet high, florid complexion, very fleshy, and usually wears spectacles. Meyers was engaged in this community as a Teacher, and previous to his departure, and the development of his shame, was regarded by his most intimate associates as a gentleman of culture and refinement. Beware of him By order of the Lodge,
